1. Have you received VA educational benefits at another college? Yes No
 Change forms are no longer required. However, all official transcripts must be received before we can certify benefits.

2. Have you applied for VA educational benefits? Yes No
 If no, you must complete a VA application online at U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs: About GI Bill Benefits

In addition to the first two steps, the following forms will need to be submitted before benefits can be certified:
 (If you have previously submitted this information, please indicate by the requested item)

- _____ Certificate of Eligibility (You will receive after applying for VA educational benefits)
- _____ A copy of your DD214 (prior active duty) or NOBE (guard/reserve) if you are a veteran
- _____ A copy of the 22-1955 form-veteran or 22-5490 dependents (if you used benefits in the past)
- _____ A copy of your schedule when you register for classes (You will need to submit immediately to prevent delays in disbursements)

Admissions requirements must also be met before benefits can be certified.

- _____ You must complete an application for admission and take the placement test (if applicable).
- _____ An official high school transcript or GED must be received in a sealed envelope.
- _____ Official transcripts from ALL colleges attended must be received and evaluated.

Please list ALL colleges attended and request transcripts to be sent to the Wilson Community College Registrar.
